

2018/2019 Honor Orchestra and Bands Audition Dates and Concert Performances (All Dates Subject to Change)

Western States Honor Orchestra is a major event held at UNC each fall sponsored by UNC String Faculty and Orchestras. High school string players from the western United States are invited to audition in order to participate. Successful applicants receive intensive orchestra training, attend master classes, and perform with renowned soloists and conductors over a three-day period.

Web Site: <http://arts.unco.edu/music/festivals-workshops/honor-orchestra/>

Audition Requirements: Audition materials are available on the web site. See their website for audition recording submission procedures. All audition recordings (mp3 files only) must be submitted via Dropbox by 4:00 pm on Friday, September 14, 2018. Auditions must be submitted online by your director electronically through Dropbox. In addition to the audition recording, a completed audition entry form and audition fee must also be submitted and received by September 14, 2018. Please note: There is a $30 audition fee which must accompany the audition entry form. The registration fee for the festival will be $55 if paid in advance or $60 if paid at registration. Registration fees are only to be paid after the student has been accepted. Please ask your students to check their schedules carefully. If they will be unable to attend any part of the festival (for ACT tests, for example), they should not apply – we ask this in order to maximize the experience for all those attending.

Colorado All State Orchestra

Web Site: <http://www.coloradoallstateorchestra.org>

Audition Requirements: Audition materials for strings are the same as the audition materials for Western States. Audition materials for winds, brass, and percussion are the same as the audition materials for All State Band. All State Orchestra also asks for a 2 1/2 minute solo that best demonstrates technical abilities. See Mr Cruse for audition packages. Auditions must be submitted online by your band or orchestra director electronically through Dropbox. CDs and mailed submissions are not accepted. The audition deadline is Tuesday, November 13, 2018 at 5:00 PM. An online registration form and student audition fees ($25 each student; checks payable to Colorado Music Educators Association) must also be completed and postmarked no later than November 13, 2018. Any student participating in All-State Orchestra must be actively involved in the school's parallel musical organization at the time of audition and during second semester when All-State Orchestra takes place. Applicants must be recommended by their school's music director and principal. A student must be academically eligible at the time of auditions for All-State Orchestra and must remain eligible throughout the time period in order to participate in All-State Orchestra. Students selected to perform with the Colorado All-State Orchestra must attend all rehearsals and the performance. Check calendars carefully before auditioning. Being selected to All-State Orchestra is an honor. Students selected must attend all events.
